TITLE: Adoption subsidy payment records

DATES: 1980-

ARRANGEMENT: Alphabetical by client surname

DESCRIPTION:

These records document subsidy payments to families adopting children with special needs, track eligibility, and provide an audit trail of payments made. State subsidies may be one time, time-limited, or long-term depending on the circumstances of the family and the child's needs. Medical, dental, psychological, and long-term maintenance state subsidies continue until age 18, or until age 21 if the state has determined that the child has a mental or physical handicap which warrants continuing assistance. All state subsidy agreements are reviewed annually for continued eligibility. (Utah Administrative Code R537-43.2 (1993)). They include eligibility documentation, court orders, supplemental security income eligibility, aid to families with dependent children eligibility, state contracts, and other miscellaneous documentation.
